

Kevin has dedicated nearly 30 years of his life to serving athletes and coaches with pastoral care and Biblical wisdom. Through his ministry, 4TheJourney, he currently supports the UCLA athletic department, guiding individuals both on and off the field.

A native of the Maryland/DC area, Kevin attended UCLA in the early 1990s on a football scholarship, where he excelled as an All-American wide receiver. After earning his BA degree in Sociology, he pursued a 3-year career in the NFL.

Following his retirement from professional football, Kevin spent 14 years with Athletes in Action, mentoring college and pro athletes and coaches in their spiritual journeys. From 2008 to 2012, he served as team chaplain for the Pittsburgh Steelers, walking alongside the team during two unforgettable Super Bowl appearances (XLIII and XLV).

Committed to deepening his impact, Kevin earned a MA in Christian Ministry & Leadership with a focus on Pastoral Care & Counseling from Biola University's Talbot School of Theology. He is currently completing his Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) through Clinical Pastoral Education International, pursuing four units of training to expand his chaplaincy work to include healthcare/hospital settings alongside his athletic ministry.

Kevin and his wife, Jenny—a former UCLA volleyball player and 2000 U.S. Beach Volleyball Olympian—are proud parents of two and reside in the San Fernando Valley. They are members of Faithful Central Bible Church in Inglewood, CA.
